Jane Gilmor, an intermedia visual artist, has exhibited nationally and internationally for four decades. A.I.R. Gallery in New York published Jane Gilmor: I'll Be Back For The Cat by art historian and critic Joy Sperling in 2014. One of five artists selected nationally, Gilmor received a 2011 Tanne Foundation Award for her career achievements in visual arts. She is currently the George A. Miller Endowed Scholar at The Center for Advanced Studies, The University of Illinois, Champaign-Urbana through March 2017.

Her work has been reviewed in The New York Times, The Chicago Tribune, and The New Art Examiner among others and is included in several books including Lucy Lippard's OVERLAY: Contemporary Art and the Art of Prehistory; and Broude and Gerrard's The Power of Feminist Art: The American Movement of the 1970's History and Impact, Abrams, 1993; and Pioneer Feminists: Women Who Changed America, 1963-1976, B. Love, University of Illinois Press, 2006. In 2009 Gilmor was a contributor to Cabinet magazine and in 2011 to the Portuguese journal Ascensor.

Gilmor has received NEA Visual Artist's Fellowships and Project Grants, a McKnight Interdisciplinary Fellowship, and residency fellowships in Ireland, Italy, London, and at The McDowell Colony among others. In 2003-04 she was a Fulbright Scholar in Portugal. She has also curated numerous exhibitions, with catalogue essays, for individual artists including Priscilla Sage, Brunnier Museum, Iowa State University and thematic exhibits such as Where are You From? Contemporary Portuguese Art, with Lesley Wright, Director, Falconer Gallery, Grinnell College.

Gilmor's recent solo exhibitions include The Architecture of Migration: I'll be back for the cat, at Long Island University in Brooklyn, in Bed Shoe Home: Poverty and Homelessness in Middle America, Univ. of ILL, 2017, and Blind at A.I.R. Gallery in New York.

Jane Gilmor attended The School of The Art Institute of Chicago after receiving a B.S. from Iowa State University in Ames. Later she received an MFA and MA from The University of Iowa in Iowa City. She is an Emerita Professor of Art at Mount Mercy University in Cedar Rapids, Iowa where she taught from 1974-2012. She is affiliated with A.I.R. Gallery in New York since 1985 and Olson Larsen Galleries in Des Moines since 1995.
